ALL MY SONS

If you want to see our talented Brookhaven Players at their very best-- Don't miss "All My Sons", the Theatre Group's Spring Presentation.

The characters are in rehearsal. The set is being set up, and everyone concerned is working like mad to make "All My Sons" the play that made Brookhaven famous. For romance, drama, and excitement, see "All My Sons" with Fran Keene, Peg Steinfield, Leo Lutwak, Martin Rickey, Ken Sancier, John Binnington and his son Tom, Dorothy Fiala, Marilyn Stafne, and Andy McReynolds. Tickets will soon be on sale for the sum of $.75!

The set crew meets on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 in the Theatre, and if you're handy with the paint brush or hammer, come on over and join the busy throng! Ed Sayres, Chief of Construction, will be delighted to see you!

The Show Goes on May 22nd and 23rd --- Be there when the curtain goes up on another Theatre Group triumph!

RESTRICTED SQUARE DANCE

No woolen skirts allowed at this one - dig out your gingham and denims - this is the first Spring show down on May 8 - that's a Thursday night - at T-317, the Recreation Building, York Lane - about 8:30 P.M. - as usual, real live callers, no cover no minimum - cold cokes and beer at cost, everyone invited, lots of fun.

BNL SOFTBALL LEAGUE

The BNL Softball league now has six teams entered. All entries close Friday, Apr. 25. The Season starts the week of Monday, May 12. Next meeting of representatives will be held Wednesday, Apr. 23, at which time final regulations governing the league will be completed.

READING OF STRINDBERG

The next program meeting of the Theatre Group will be on Tuesday evening, April 29, at 8:00 PM in the Apartment Area Recreation Building "Stage 317." Chris and Aksel Bothner-By, Ken Sancier and Marilyn Stafne will give a reading of Strindbergs "Miss Julie". Remember these programs are open to anyone who's interested in coming - drop in, size us up, sit around later and tell us what we did wrong (there's usually some refreshment) and - perhaps get the notion you'd like to join us and try your hand at it.
